

Women In Agriculture Farm Tours

Our third farm tour is with Patsy Waddell

Patsy is the primary operator of a commercial stocker operation. After her husband passed away she was determined to continue the farm she and her husband had built together. We will tour her farm and learn about her farm transition from a dairy operation to stocker operation.

A representative from Farm Bureau's Women Committee will join us to share opportunities with their organization.

One of the overarching goals of Women in Ag is to highlight and empower women pursuing opportunities in agriculture.
